The background of the image is a close-up, top-down view of clear, shallow blue water. The surface is covered in intricate, shimmering ripples and reflections of light, creating a textured, crystalline appearance. The colors range from light turquoise to deeper blues, with bright highlights where the light reflects off the water's surface.

With Costa your happiness multiplies exponentially because you also see it in the eyes of the people you love

Welcome to “happiness squared”

To us “Happiness squared” has a very specific meaning: when we see happiness reflected in the eyes of our fellow travellers, our own happiness automatically multiplies.

We go on holidays with our friends, our family, our partner and we don’t always end up doing what we would like to do. Going on vacation almost always means compromising. In fact, we often end up doing what others want, instead of what we want to do. And, sometimes, we are the ones making our fellow travellers do what we want. On our ships, however, every member of the group can do what he/she wants, any time of the day or night.

No obstacles or compromises: our offer is so broad that everyone can indulge in their favourite activities.

This is what “Happiness squared” means.

And at Costa we went big. We thought of everything: fun, good food, hospitality, tours, special privileges.

You will be the true stars of our cruises. You will have the opportunity to exhibit your talent on stage, participating in two famous talent shows: ‘Tú sí Que Vales’ and ‘The Voice of the Sea’.

We have also organised entertainment for children: with Peppa Pig and her colourful friends, they are guaranteed to have fun as well. To make your vacation special at the table too, we sought the mastery of a name that speaks for itself: multi-starred chef Bruno Barbieri. One of the dinner that you will enjoy on board has been specially created by him for Costa guests, based on dishes from the great Italian tradition. For the excursions we relied on two expert travellers: Syusy Blady and Patrizio Roversi from “Turisti per Caso”* (*meaning “Accidental Tourists”).

And that’s not all.

Our CostaClub loyalty programme has been completely renewed to offer you even more benefits and special experiences. We have created a new pricing system allowing you to book cruises tailored to your needs.

Climb aboard with Costa and your happiness will multiply, because you will also see it in the eyes of your fellow travellers.

So, are you ready for a trip into exponential happiness?

The excursion that thrills you and the people with you

Syusy Blady and Patrizio Roversi, the legendary “Accidental tourists”*, the largest Italian community dedicated to tourism, presents the most interesting excursions exclusively for you, having chosen Costa, offering select and recommended destinations for each cruise. (*from the Italian “Turisti per Caso”).

An offer that will allow you to discover the territory while being respectful of the places that you visit, and taking in the different and unexpected points of view from the proposed itineraries.

Because a Costa cruise is always thrilling, both on-board and ashore, with more than 2,200 excursions to discover the finest aspects of the destinations, visited in the way you prefer.

We offer many different types of itineraries: from wine and food experiences to relaxing family outings that also appeal to children, satisfying those who love culture to those seeking unspoiled nature, from the tour group to the customised excursion.

Each excursion will take you straight to the heart of the destination. Costa tour directors, competent and certified local guides, accompany you, bypassing queues and offering preferential entry to museums and sites of interest. All at a transparent price, clear with no surprises.

Don't forget to book your tours in advance to ensure the broadest choice, greater comfort and convenience and to feel like you already a little bit on vacation, from the very start.

Family Club: Peppa Pig is already aboard

The importance that Italians place on family is reflected in the care that our cabin crew takes in entertaining your children.

As of 2016 the Family Club has a new friend, Peppa Pig who, with her fabulous world of merry companions, is on board all Costa ships (excluding neoRomantica), and ready to welcome your children in her corner of custom installations and the decorations of children's most beloved character. Children can, accordingly, join the character to enjoy adventures together, which always end up with the whole group having a good laugh.

A Costa cruise is the perfect family getaway: relaxation and fun at the same time, and full of thrills for parents and children, with many customised solutions. Like the dream of being captain or princess for a day, dressed in a smart uniform or in a flowing evening gown for this magnificent adventure that electrifies your children.

Many activities are designed to be carried out along with the children but, if you want to take some time out for yourself, the entertainment staff will take care of them with many age-appropriate games.

Go to your travel agency, check out our website or get in touch with our contact center to discover the special offers for families.

Sport and wellness. The holiday for your body

If you are athletic you can stay in shape with the gym and jog on the most scenic track in the world, on the decks overlooking the sea.

The gym is equipped with the most modern machinery, allowing you to keep up with your workout even on holiday.

You can challenge your friends to a basketball game or relax your muscles with a yoga class accompanied by our instructors who are very good in involving, with great professionalism and enthusiasm, even the laziest people and are able to put a smile on your face with every new sport experience.

Samsara Spa areas provide saunas and massage areas to restore physical energy and mental balance in unique spaces and settings.

Indulge in gentle water circuits in the thermal and thalassotherapy pools, steam baths and Finnish saunas, live the experience of treatments inspired by ancient Ayurvedic teachings.

Close your eyes and recuperate energy.

We offer you a thousand good occasions to toast to.

A toast, an aperitif, a wine tasting, a pitcher of beer, an Aperol Spritz, a glass of Ferrari, a long drink after dinner. During Costa cruises there are as many occasions to propose a toast as your desire to do so.

You will find a selection of the best Italian and international labels to accompany the dishes served at your meal, with pairings dedicated to each course, even with the special tasting menus.

You can taste Italian wines, with particular focus on the major wine producing areas, such as: Piedmont, Tuscany, Trentino, Friuli, Sicily or the best foreign selections.

The Ferrari bar allows you to enjoy the quality of Italian bubbly in an elegant and classy setting.

And, if you prefer a more laid back atmosphere, you can go to the pool-side bars to sip an Aperol Spritz in the company of others.

Do you like innovation? Our impeccable barmen will introduce you to new solid and molecular cocktails.

Because proposing a toast is an ode to joy that Costa cruises always provide the occasion for.

A dinner created by Chef Barbieri

Water is the link to the connection between chef Bruno Barbieri and the menu, created by him, dedicated to all Costa Cruises guests. The sea is essential to this encounter.

Water is life: the noise, the sound, the smell are the basis of this choice. Plus, it also represents the chef's return to the origins of his career, as his first work experience was as third cook on a ship, in 1979.

A return that, on Costa, thanks to the menu created by him, tastes like a dream come true.

A menu created for Costa guests, which takes into account the various nationalities while trying to convey, not just to the Italian diners, but also to the guests from abroad, the importance of the raw materials and how they are prepared.

Great care is dedicated to plating and presentation because a tasty experience begins with the eyes before it engages all the other senses.

The pleasure of sitting down for a meal, on board, can be relived every day, through the flavours of great Italian cuisine.

We offer more than 400 dishes representing 16 Regions, as well as gastronomic proposals from the places you will be visiting.

As an additional choice, at dinner, there are special dishes available, at an added cost, and the menu always includes vegetarian dishes.

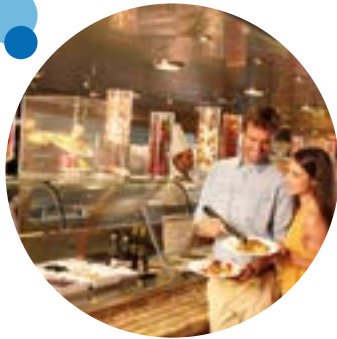

It is also possible to enjoy a vast selection of vegan dishes by requesting this when you make your booking.

We are also happy to announce new menus that combine the experiences of Pacific fusion based on Italian cuisine, available at the Samsara restaurant.

Multiply your curiosity. A different restaurant every night

An exclusive restaurant, a good pizza place, sophisticated fusion cuisine, it's nice to be spoiled for choice and dine somewhere different, every evening, all while remaining on board a Costa ship.

In addition to the main restaurant and the self service restaurant which, every evening, offer regional menus with Italian tradition recipes and some influences from the places you have visited, you can dine at Pummid'oro to enjoy a soft pizza made with sourdough and select ingredients or you can opt for a casual evening at the hamburger restaurant. If you want to impress, choose Pacific fusion based on Italian cuisine at Samsara with its light and tasty recipes or book a table at the Club restaurant, the perfect place for an exclusive dinner with our chefs' finest specialities.

On Costa Diadema you can also choose between laid back the Bavarian beer garden or the sophisticated Asian cuisine of Teppanyaki restaurant.

Reminding you that all restaurants, except for the main one, offer menus at an added cost, we invite you to try them.

Then, if you fancy a creamy, hand crafted ice cream, on Costa Diadema, you can go to Gelateria Amarillo and, on other ships, the ice-cream cart will offer you fabulous flavours prepared on-board.

Fun. Exponential opportunities.

Only on Costa ships, “Tú sí Que Vales”, the successful television format, will be put on show during the cruise, providing you with the opportunity to express your talent on stage.

A unique opportunity to perform in front of an audience.

All you need is a special skill: being able to sing, dance, imitate or juggle or know how to tell jokes, or maybe just knowing how to do something funny that can impress the audience and get a round of applause out of them.

A jury of officers and professionals from the on-board entertainment team will be the judges and the audience will vote to determine the winner of the evening.

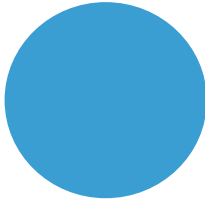

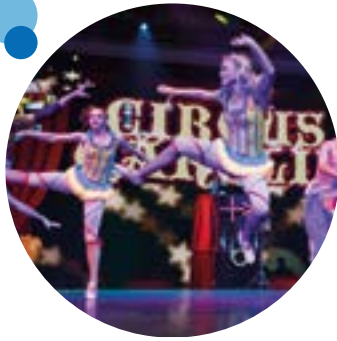

The great success of the television format is based not only on talent, but also on the ability not to take oneself too seriously and focus mostly on the fun and frivolity of one’s performance.

So don’t be shy to hit the stage; the best talent of each cruise will participate in the selections for the TV show and will compete in becoming the winner of the Italian “Tú sí Que Vales”.

And those who don’t want to actively participate can take a seat and enjoy a magnificent live show.

Costa Cruises. What a show!

The thousand faces of show business are on board. The all-Italian attitude towards performing becomes an art, on our ships, with different shows all the time.

Musicians, acrobats, magicians, mimes, bands are ready to show you that performance has many different masks and, on board, we put them all on stage to offer you unforgettable moments.

All of the scheduled exhibitions are excellent productions prepared in fine detail, from the costumes to the props, and which can take up to four months of rehearsals. The casts are composed of top level professionals who know how to make you laugh, dream, enjoy.

Every evening you can take a seat in the theatre and watch something new that will amaze you.

On Costa every moment is a production, like the Sapori d'Italy show, a major production retracing the wonders and excellences of Italy, with unforgettable songs and stunning scenery.

Our passion for performance is not limited to the theater, but also extends to the lounge bars where we engage you with music, dancing, flash mobs and new surprises throughout the day.

Also, for the best singers among our guests, there is "The Voice of the sea" contest, open to people with vocal talent.

But even without participating, watching these shows is truly thrilling and makes one appreciate the talent of the singers, live.

Costa. The star of fun.

4D cinema, Grand Prix Simulator, Casino, Shopping and the Internet: you are spoiled for choice.

On top of all the activities and games that you can play on board, Costa provides you with the opportunity to attend screenings in the spectacular 4D movie theatre which involves all five senses. Tired of practicing your favourite sport? On our ships you can also practice virtual sports such as the Grand Prix Simulator, which is so fun and realistic that you will feel like you are actually whizzing around the circuit at insane speeds. And, on Costa Diadema, prepare to be amazed by the new super technological Star Laser area with maze and latest generation laser games.

Those who prefer more traditional, but no less exciting, bets can pay a visit to the Casino. Red or black, where does your luck lie? Try your luck at the slot machines, roulette or blackjack.

But not before taking a walk through the gallery of on-board shops where you can find the best Italian and international fashion and beauty, jewellery and wristwatch brands, an extensive range of accessories and comfortable casual wear to help you enjoy your cruise even more.

And then, thanks to new I Love Surfing, Internet & Costa offers you are always connected to your friends to share your on-board experiences with them, because Costa allows you to navigate everywhere.

Resident photographers are on-board each Costa ship to provide you with souvenirs of your special moments.

You can ask for "formal" portraits to celebrate special occasions, and for all other on-board moments our staff is there capturing them for you in an uncontrived and natural way.

There are 6 Clubs and the points that count towards calculating which club you are a Member of are the ones you have earned on cruises you have taken in the last three years. Here are the clubs:

Club Ambra:
0 points

Club Acquamarina:
from 1 to 2,000 points

Club Corallo:
from 2,001 to 5,000 points

Club Perla:

Club Perla Oro:

Club Perla Diamante:

Lots of points, so you can move faster up to the next levels

The basic points you earn for each cruise day increase depending on the type of cabin you have chosen, allowing you to move up to the higher levels very quickly:

- 100 points per day for inside cabins
- 150 points per day for outside cabins
- 175 points per day for outside cabins with balcony

With the Premium formula, your daily points are doubled:

so 200 points for inside cabins, 300 for outside and 350 for outside with balcony. Suite guests will receive an incredible 450 points a day. But that's not all, any Costa flights you pay for earn you points too: up to a maximum of 500. You'll also receive 2 points for every euro you spend on board. And any onboard purchases made on cruises purchased at a promotional rate earn you points too. The cost of the cruise ticket for these cruises, however, does not entitle Members to points.

Costa Crociere Foundation: making a difference

Making a positive change in society and to the environment through everyone's contributions. The Foundation makes all of this possible thanks to the precious bond between Costa Cruises, its partners, and you who have decided to travel on our ships.

The world is impatient for us to make a difference, Ban Ki-moon - Secretary General of the United Nations.

The Costa Crociere Foundation was founded to create social and environmental value.

In just over a year we have provided shelter to those who didn't have any, food to those who couldn't afford it, awarded the most deserving students with scholarships, cleaned up some of the most beautiful beaches of Italy, made the younger generation aware of the need to protect the marine environment and made the goods from our ships available to the needy.

All of this has considerably improved the lives of many people, which we will soon tell you about.

By visiting www.costa-crociere-foundation.com/en/ you can see the amount of change from up close.

For the future we hope to consolidate what we have done so far and, thanks to your donations, expand our range of action.

*Round the World

What is travel if not the need to find answers to questions. Questions that may be few or, if you are a true traveller, countless. Like the questions Marco Polo had, driving him from a very early age, to discover, explore and satiate his curiosity. Because travelling is not only seeing, but most of all, understanding.

Traditions, culture, food are expressions of a civilisation that provide us with profound answers on human nature and also help us understand our essence as inhabitants of this planet.

The Round the World cruise undoubtedly quenches the modern traveller's thirst to learn and see, and it is thrilling to sail the oceans and reach the ports, from East to West, on our planet.

Today we have an asteroid dedicated to Marco Polo which, like people who travel, never stops doing so. And it is nice to imagine him like that, still curious 700 years after his first travels.

Round the World 2017

Journey between the Tropics with Costa Luminosa, 106 days

January 6, 2017 from Savona

Islands, isthmuses, coves, fjords, bays, straits, ports, meanders in a single journey are definitely a thrill that you experience day after day for more than three months.

Happiness reflects in the eyes of those travelling with us, for being the protagonists of a marvellous journey.

From the Mediterranean we set sail in the Atlantic Ocean towards Cape Verde, we cross towards Brazil, then down along Latin America to Cape Horn. We circumnavigate the tip and head North: Chile, Argentina and then the picture-postcard Islands of Easter, Papeete, Bora Bora. New Zealand and Australia to dive into the Indian Ocean, with India and Persia and through the Suez Canal returning to the Mediterranean cradle.

All of this aboard a Costa fleet ship with Italian-style service and welcoming that makes us appreciate the beauty of the Round the World cruise even more.

Each morning offers us new and different scenery, providing us with new thrills and excitement. So many unforgettable places live in our memories: in books we have read, films we have seen, stories we have heard, with the prerogative that now we are the main characters of this adventure that takes us across the seas of the entire globe.

We travel from the Mediterranean to the Atlantic to the Pacific Ocean, touching ports and harbours that are interesting and very different from one another, each one giving us the piece of a mosaic for us to complete, upon our return, a puzzle of emotions with memories of the beauty that lies within the diversity of this wonderful world that is the Earth.

On board we enjoy a relaxed pace, freedom of choice, respect for our balance, we rediscover the pleasure of admiring and interacting with our surroundings. Essentially we are living a dream.

Cruising the great oceans with Costa Luminosa, 106 days

January 6, 2018 from Venice

With its great variety of destinations across the globe, this cruise offers you much more than the ocean, it offers the comfort of travelling on a Costa fleet ship without having to change hotel with every stretch, rather, you can enjoy the comfort of your cabin, pampered by Italian-style hospitality.

We cross the Mediterranean to discover natural and historical wonders and then continue past the Pillars of Hercules in the Atlantic Ocean and reach South America. From the Panama Canal we climb up to San Francisco with its legendary, unmistakable red Golden Gate Bridge.

We receive a lei of flowers in Honolulu and are swept away by the beauty of the Australian desert, and on to discover India, ancient Persia and Indonesia to experience their spirituality. From the Suez Canal, finally, we head back to “our sea”.

And we already miss watching those seas from the deck of our ship while a gentle ebb accompanies our thoughts and the horizon takes on new meanings, not as goals but as renewed beginnings and brand new possibilities.

In a frenetic era where time is more and more a resource, dreaming of a cruise as grand as the tour of the world makes us think of a great privilege, the possibility of being the masters of our time.

Crossing the Atlantic Ocean to reach America by ship, devoting entire days to navigation is a liberation that allows us to fully enjoy this great treasure.

It reminds us of the travellers of the early 1900's and their innate calmness, the indolent beauty of knowing how to travel for the pleasure of the journey and not the impatience of reaching the chosen destination.

It is the beauty of making new acquaintances, sipping a drink, enjoying the theater, walking on the decks at sunset.

Indeed, the pleasure of the journey is what has been missing and what we have redeemed with the experience of the Costa Round the World Cruise.

On Aladdin's magic carpet

We will fly on Aladdin's magic carpet across deserts and dunes by day, under the beating sun. Patient camels slowly plough across them carrying goods for an excursion so far away that you feel lost surrounded by nothing but the silence of the sand. In the distance the sea is teeming with colourful fish swimming in the crystal clear water.

And, when the Sun decides to go down, the shadows grow longer while the heat cools, and we change from cotton to wool.

The night in the desert is as absolute as one night worth one thousand nights, leading you to look inside yourself to find the answer to your questions, a serene and restless night, a night that contains our destiny.

The cities are stark in contrast with the harsh nature and, at the same time, convey the willingness of these men to take the land and build it towards the sky, as if they had rubbed Aladdin's magic lamp, asking to climb up into the clouds and, like a falcon, observe the horizon.

Khor Fakkan

Dubai

The people, down below, go to the mosque and the market, they enter luxurious shops and play in amusement parks, admiring the beauty and being impressed by it. They experience emotions and learn about other places, different from what they know, they experience the spirituality, the rituals and the intense humanity.

Because living in the same world also means living outside what we know, with: different rhythms, customs, traditions, foods. Like a truly magical carpet that needs every knot to stay together, it needs warp and weft to be woven together perfectly and form a pattern that can only create rare beauty this way.

Muscat

Sir Bani Yas

Dubai

DUBAI

The city where the simplicity of the desert meets the complexity of modern architecture.

Where unrivalled luxury meets the agitated clamour of the souk, where dromedaries meet supercars.

The Jumeirah Mosque welcomes us with its beauty and also with the spirituality that surrounds it, in contrast with the luxury of Burj Khalifa, the skyscraper symbol of Dubai.

But you can also swim with the dolphins at the Atlantis hotel in the middle of an artificial island or sail on the waters of Dubai Creek among the dhows, traditional boats with triangular sails.

ABU DHABI

Considered the Manhattan of the desert, it is under continuous construction with one eye looking towards the future and the other at tradition, such as falconry, which is included in the UNSECO heritage list.

A thousand things to do and see, like the Ferrari amusement park and the Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque which can welcome up to 40,000 worshippers, or Saadiyat island which, in 2018, will become the country's trade and cultural centre and will also host the Guggenheim Museum.

Eating at the Emirates Palace or having English tea at the Jumeirah hotel and enjoying the unparalleled views of the city are also great privileges.

Abu Dhabi

OMAN

This remains a timeless country because it is both contemporary and ancient, present and past but especially a place where everything is spotless and sparkling like gratitude that extends from personal care to the care of places. Oman is called the Norway of Arabia for its truly unique morphological characteristics. The Musandam peninsula offers an almost lunar landscape, to navigate through the fjords of Arabia.

Muscat is beautiful to visit with its Nizwa market or the Omani Bait-al-Zubair Museum, the Al Alam Royal Palace or Al Jalali Fort.

Legend has it that the Palace of the Queen of Sheba was located in the Kohr Rori Bay. While in Salalah you can admire the geysers that gush from the rocks.

Tour 00KK Petra. Temples and monuments carved into the pink rock, a path through the depths of a narrow canyon plunging almost 100 metres and the dazzling surprise of the Treasury at Petra. A once in a lifetime experience.

Tour 0821 Heraklion. We experience the myth of Minos in the ruins of the palace in the ancient city of Knossos, suspended between history and legend, and at the archaeological museum we see Minoan pieces of rare beauty dating back to 1,500 years B.C.

Tour 00UY Dubai. The grand tour of Dubai lasts a day and a half and it makes us get used to thinking big because everything here is superlative. What strikes us most are the barjeel, the wind towers, old houses that channel the wind inside to cool the rooms and grounds.

Like young Captain Nemos

We face the leagues of the seas like young Captain Nemos, navigating towards the treasures of the Indian Ocean.

He, the brilliant and eccentric inventor of the submarine Nautilus, fought his war against oppression, crossing the seas around the world, perfectly invisible.

His Indian origins are what make him the perfect commander for crossing these seas.

We discover immense and immersed treasures in these waters, so clear that it is hard to describe them and so teeming with life forms that we are left breathless

Colours that we observe from the double glazed window set in a rugged copper ring of the Nautilus, watching the sun shine through the crystal waters and depositing its rays on the white sand seabed.

Diego Suarez

Colombo

Colors and reflections that we can now observe through the glass of our masks while swimming through coral reefs near the oceanic passes of stunning atolls.

We feel like Nemo, “nobody” in comparison to the immensity of the sea, beautiful and mysterious, fascinating and frightening at the same time.

Every sight is a marvel that amazes our senses. This is an earthly paradise and the creatures that inhabit it enjoy the privilege of the perpetual gift of leaving behind all suffering.

An atmosphere of quiet contemplation accompanies us on these trips and immerses us in the devastating force of nature’s beauty.

INDIA

India of colourful temples, glistening gold in the sun, India of bright fabrics, India of cheerful and kind people, India of frenzy and traffic, of fog and light, of water from the Ganges and putrid slums, India of castes and resurrections, India of sweet music and mouth watering cuisine.

India of dance and emotions, India, you are sublime even when you are close to the abyss, we can only understand you by experiencing you and this is the only way we can love you, forever, unconditionally.

We make landfall at Cochin, once called the Queen of the Arabian Sea by the Portuguese domains of the 1500s, followed by the Dutch and British who, with ups and downs, forged a people rich in different contaminations.

But Mumbai, formerly known as Bombay, is where the meaning of India explodes.

The population of the capital grew from one million inhabitants at the beginning of the 1900s to over 21 million today, and this figure says a lot about life today in this country.

MALDIVES

The fine white sand, coconut palms, white warm water, fish that eat on our immersed feet and the warm and reassuring sun.

In the silence of an oasis of pleasure, we dive in and see the open sea on the horizon, choppy and swarming that takes on shades of green and ends in the endless deep blue of the open sea.

Only if we cross an ocean pass and we dive in on the other side of the barrier and then allow ourselves to be carried by the current to see the beauty of coral inhabited by colourful and curious fish, this is the only way we can experience the real heart of the Maldives, of its sea.

The Maldives is a place of joy because it knows how to revert us back to a primitive state of wellbeing that comes from immersing ourselves in nature and understanding it.

The Far East

Seychelles, Maldives, Sri Lanka, Thailand, Singapore, Viet Nam and China with Costa neoRomantica, 24 days - 23 nights

The seas of Mauritius, Seychelles and Maldives dazzle us with the shades of blue and green of their waters, reflections of happiness. We arrive in Sri Lanka and enter a new world, starting with this beautiful island also known as the “teardrop of India”, which will surprise us. Phuket, Thailand, is three days of sea travel away, and awaits us with its promise of crystal clear water and the infectious cheer of its people. This is followed by Da Nang, the former French colony of Tourane in Vietnam, and then, finally, Hong Kong, the iconic and legendary city with its free heart appearing in every self-respecting vintage spy film, and which never disappoints one’s expectations and remains in the hearts of its visitors as an unforgettable memory.

Between Yin and Yang

Maldives, Sri Lanka and India with Costa neoClassica,
8 or 9 days - 7 or 8 nights

A vacation between Yin and Yang. First, amidst the atolls of the Indian Ocean, divided by the sparkling whiteness of the fine sand and the blue of the depths beyond the coral reef.

Where everything is color and light and the sun illuminates these views with beauty.

Then, onto India with Goa and Mumbai with its chaotic traffic, intense colors, the humanity of the people, on top of the beauty of the places.

In the end you no longer know what is uphill and downhill, light and shadow, earth and heaven and you discover there is no need to look for contrasts but just to let yourself go to the beauty of these places, which differ from yet complement each other.

The Colours of India

India, Maldives and Sri Lanka with Costa neoClassica,
8 days - 7 nights

For anyone who's ever been to Mumbai, the first thing they think of are the people.

A huge flow of people constantly on the move.

The frenzy of the traffic and the constant sway between sublime and lowly, between poverty and nobility.

This is the hallmark of the whole of India, where the human condition merges in the villages with an explosive nature and loses itself in the chaos of the big cities.

The Maldives conclude this cruise offering us the grace and silence to meditate on the contrasts we have just witnessed.

With Jim Hawkins towards Treasure Island

Like Jim Hawkins we head off towards “treasure island”, not hidden in a trunk however, but travelling comfortably in our cabin.

The adventures of this teenager have been forged in our imagination with peglegged pirates, talking parrots and the inevitable maps, where the treasure is marked with an x.

The sea of those past crossings is the same that we sail today, as is the spirit of adventure, the discovery of our treasure, which fuels the thrill of our journey today.

Stevenson actually had travelled back then and reported a very different perspective from city life in his journals.

Life on the ships portrayed a contrast between the harsh life of the sailors and the ferocity of the pirates, a metaphor for the ongoing struggle between good and evil that leads our lives into the wilderness of the passage through adolescence where everything is not black and white.

Antigua

His fervid imagination described the beauty of places that became colonies for the valuable cultivation of cocoa, coffee and spices.

City life at that time, indeed like today, contrasted with the fascinating nature, the exotic animals, the heady scents, the colours saturated by the hot sun, the opposite of the cold and foggy atmospheres of the British harbours.

The fascination of the exotic existed back then and still persists today, and sailing those seas conjures up the same emotions so that we, today, experience our trip like youngsters looking for a treasure, believing we will find it here, right under the palm tree where the x is marked on the map of our desires.

Tobago

Barbados

THE ANTILLES

Columbus was the first Westerner to see them and became enchanted with them. Today these islands are inhabited by a melting pot of races that characterise the open and welcoming spirit.

This is the place for beaches, in terms of number and beauty of the coves and stretches of sand.

Diving in Antigua and Barbados, in Guadeloupe, you can visit the protected reserve of Jacques Cousteau, in St. Martin the enchanted lagoons of St. Kitts. Pretty much the only things you need are a bathing suit and a mask.

DOMINICAN REPUBLIC AND THE CAYMAN ISLANDS

Palm trees on the beach are the postcard of the Caribbean and we can find them in La Romana, while in Catalina we can enjoy the great Costa hospitality allowing us to spend the day on a beach entirely dedicated to us.

At Grand Cayman the expanse of white sands of the Seven Mile Beach relaxes the senses.

Grand Cayman

BAHAMAS, JAMAICA AND FLORIDA

Together with the spirit of the old pirates we spend our time in the pleasant atmosphere of Nassau and then we dive back into the nature of Ocho Rios where we climb Dunn's River Falls, however, not before soaking in the unspoilt nature of the Coyaba gardens through the virgin forest. Miami and its Everglades have become legendary as the settings of blockbuster movies.

MEXICO AND HONDURAS

In Mexico the power of pre-Columbian civilisations envelops us on visits to archaeological sites such as Chichén Itzá, the pyramid of Kukulcàn, all the way to Tulum which rises out of the beach of fine sand. In Honduras we relax on Taybana Beach, charmed by its marvellous corals.

Pearls of the Caribbean

Antilles and Dominican Rep. with Costa Favolosa, 10 days - 9 nights

An entire cruise along the beach! And what beaches.

If you enjoy sea, sun and sand, this truly is the place for you. We reach Guadeloupe with special Costa flights and, in each of the seven destinations, we swam, sun tanned and smiled the entire time.

We took enough pictures to fill up a hard drive.

The contest was to find out which is the most beautiful destination between: La Romana, Antigua, Martinique or St. Kitts and Catalina Island with the beach reserved for Costa cruise passengers, but we couldn't elect one because we had a great time everywhere we went and we enjoyed the warmth of the Caribbean and its unparalleled beauty.

Pearls of the Caribbean

Antilles and Dominican Rep. with Costa Favolosa, 8 days - 7 nights

Seven days for seven islands, the dream of every true traveller.

While at home the winter cold forces us to bundle up in coats, here, we can swim in the most beautiful seas of the world. All you need are 5 days off work and your identity card to reach these magnificent beaches.

Thanks to Costa we discover Catalina Island, completely reserved to us for an entire day and, in St. Kitts, we dive into the atmosphere that comes from the fusion between Anglo-Saxon spirit and Caribbean vitality, while, in Martinique, we can stay on the beach until the unforgettable sunset.

In La Romana, we swim with dolphins and, thanks to our overnight stay, we discover Dominican traditions. The fine sand, the Creole cuisine and the scent of rum almost make us forget that we have to get back.

Aeneas, travelling for personal growth

Aeneas is forced to leave Troy, victim of the resentment of Juno. Right from the beginning of the Aeneid, Virgil describes him at sail in the eastern Mediterranean, like us, today, in the same waters heading towards the wonders of what still remains on the earth, and in our hearts, of those glorious years of the spirit of those captains.

Troy was situated in Asia minor, in Hellespont, modern day Turkey, and after leaving from there Aeneas went to, but not only, the Cyclades with Delos, Crete, Strofades Islands, Epirus, Castro, the very tip of Salento, he sailed the coast of Calabria and Sicily to modern day Trapani, he arrived in Carthage to then returned towards Rome to fulfil his mission.

The aim of Aeneas' journey is to build a new city and a new civilisation, and is dotted with evidence that we discover along our cruise, of those roots that enclose the cradle of Europe, in the Mediterranean basin.

*Every Pilgrim, from past to present, is a man on a quest.
Travel is accompanied by questions, answers, discoveries and teachings, it enhances the ability to see, to compare, to grasp similarities and diversities. The modern tourist differs from the hero of the past, but is driven by the same curious vitality.*

Because, for everyone, the journey is an experience and an opportunity for introspection and understanding change. The objective of each trip is important, but so is the journey, as both are part of a unique whole which means growing and changing from one condition to another.

Like the perilous journey of Aeneas who is both opposed and protected by the gods in a sequence of events that, in their novelisation, are proof that life places us in its flow.

ITALY

The marvel of Italy is made of must-see cities such as Rome, Florence, Venice, Pisa or fantastic sites as Salento, the Cinque Terre, Portofino, the Neapolitan coast, the crystal clear sea of Sardinia, offering us the pleasure of a unique welcome that is reflected in the smiles of the people we meet. In fact, visiting Italy doesn't only mean seeing unforgettable places, but also enjoying an atmosphere which is the result of the Italian lifestyle.

FRANCE, SPAIN AND THE BALEARIC ISLANDS

From the sea of lavender of Provence to the waves of the Balearic Islands, which are sound as well as sea waves, thanks to the endless nightlife. The austere beauty of French cities is mixed with the coloured passion of Spanish towns. We are filled with a kind of vitality upon seeing such beautiful places and ancient traditions. This is the beating heart of our history as Europeans, this is where the artists, musicians, architects who developed our culture were born.

PORTUGAL AND MOROCCO

To the rhythm of fado in the streets of Lisbon on the Atlantic coast which was once believed to be the edge of the world, but instead it is where the new adventure begins. Portugal has the special charm of a land suspended between past and present, on a human scale.

And Morocco, with its warm, irresistible embrace. The fragrance of spices and the clamour of the merchants, the delicate tea sipped on a shady patio, are all sweet and unforgettable memories.

CANARY ISLANDS AND MADEIRA

Tenerife, Las Palmas, Fuerte Ventura with their crystal clear water and constantly blowing wind, homeland of surfers and anyone wishing to enjoy wild and fantastic nature. Madeira, which according to legend was part of Atlantis, welcomes us with its vineyards and unexpected views.

These are places that bring out our youth regardless of our biological age, for here life beats at a faster rate.

GREECE

A mix of history, culture, traditions and beautiful beaches make Greece an unbeatable vacation spot.

Here you can still see remnants of the glorious past of the ancient peoples and you can visit some of the largest archaeological parks in the world, that make us understand the vision of grandeur and beauty that classical civilisations pursued.

But, at the same time, we can also walk around small villages of iconic beauty and dive into the deep blue sea.

You are sure to take plenty of pictures because the colours of Greece are unique, from dawn to dusk.

MALTA, CROATIA, MONTENEGRO

Malta, with Valletta, is an island in rapid expansion offering pleasant thrills, its name comes from the Greek “sweet” for a quality of honey from native bees that was once produced here in abundance.

Valletta features the characteristics of different populations and therefore conveys an international spirit.

Croatia and Montenegro bear a strong resemblance with Italian lands in their historic beauty, nature is the protagonist along with historical tradition that is expressed in the buildings of beautiful Split and in Montenegro’s likeness of the Republic of Venice.

In Naples, the continuous shouting rocks us like a melodic song and leads us to visit Piazza del Plebiscito and the Maschio Angioino and as we stroll along we enjoy a pizza and a sfogliatella (Italian pastry). After Valletta and St. John's Co-Cathedral, we disembark in Barcelona and visit the Gothic quarter with its typical 'carrers' (streets) and small squares and lastly we visit Marseilles and its small port and discover that the old towns of the Mediterranean share many common features.

Classic Greece

Greece and Croatia with Costa Luminosa,
8 days - 7 nights • Boarding in Venice and Trieste

We board in Venice, with its unrivalled charm, to travel on to Trieste, a border city, home of Mitteleuropean culture. We follow the pull that Greece has on our past, evoked by majestic ruins. From the port of Athens, the impressive size of the Parthenon observing us from above, almost takes us by surprise. In Olympia we admire the places of ancient athletic competitions. In Corfu, right in front of Epirus, between Greece and Albania, we bathe in its crystal clear water. We still have time to visit Dubrovnik, with its proud beauty. At each stop-over we encounter signs of different populations and past conquests, as the entire Mediterranean is a basin of peoples who fought, conquered and left their mark in stone and on the inhabitants.

On the notes of Lisbon

Spain, Portugal and France with Costa Mediterranea,
13 days - 12 nights • Boarding in Savona, Naples and Palermo

Lisbon is the true star of this cruise.

We arrive there after passing through Naples and Palermo, undecided whether to abandon ourselves to the beauty of the art, the call of nature or the lure of the food. After a day of sailing, where life on board pampers and entertains us, we reach Valencia, with its City of Arts and Sciences, and then onto the Straits of Gibraltar, which recall the daring spirit of ancient mariners. We visit Lisbon, by day, in the Moorish quarter of Alfama and, on the evocative notes of fado, we bask in the charm of the evening thanks to the pleasant overnight stay.

There is still time for the Spanish wonders of Cadiz and Malaga, the homelands of tango dancers.

On our way back we stop in Marseilles, the classic destination for exploring Provence.

With Leif Eriksson, King of the sea.

Imagine the cold waters of the North and, if we look to the horizon, we can see the impressive drakkar of Leif Ericson, son of Erik the Red, as it begins its journey from Greenland towards the lands of North America, as yet unknown to Europeans. An epic adventure that could only be accomplished by brave men.

The sagas tell us the stories of these journeys headed by experienced sailors aboard these unique boats, known as drakkars.

These Viking ships had flat bottoms, with shallow draft, making it possible to navigate along rivers and basically travel anywhere.

As long as 30 metres with dozens of pairs of oars, they were built from a single oak trunk. A square sail mounted in the centre increased the speed and the raised prow was decorated with dragon heads carved into the wood, terrorising their adversaries when they broke through the misty morning waters.

Trondheim

Tromsø

The Vikings were such powerful and ruthless pirates and highly skilled sailors that signs of their incursions can still be seen today, everywhere from northern to southern Europe all the way to Africa, to the East and on the American continent.

They were the perfect men for this vast, cold, sometimes inhospitable land, which also surprises us with its pristine beauty. They were considered the Kings of the seas, with good reason, according to their legends, handed down through narration from generation to generation.

We still half expect to meet one of them, dressed in hide and wearing an iron helmet, as we travel through these fjords and enjoy a view that drives home the idea of what great determination it takes to tame the power of this nature.

NORWAY AND ICELAND

A different landscape, made of lights and vivid, sharp colours. The thrill of North Cape, the majesty of the Geirangerfjord, the rugged beauty of the Lofoten Islands, or the magical atmosphere of Iceland with the Waterfall of the gods or Myvan Lake with its thermal waters, representing an alternative to conventional excursions. If your idea of vacation revolves around nature, here you will find such beautiful and unspoiled nature that you will never forget it.

RUSSIA AND FINLAND

Visiting St. Petersburg is a must to understanding the elegant beauty of a city that has been the centre of European culture, when power was also expressed through the elegance of the buildings and the art that they contained. It is crucial to visit the Hermitage Museum, with its style in stark contrast to the sober architectural rigour of Helsinki, the fascinating Finnish capital with its clean lines extending towards the future.

St. Petersburg

ESTONIA, LITHUANIA AND LATVIA

The Baltic States are united by their geographical proximity but differ greatly in the expression of their culture.

Tallinn features a medieval spirit, Riga holds a thousand treasures and the character of the people of Lithuania, which was the first of the Baltic republics to gain independence from Russia in 1990, create a mixture of gripping interest and rare beauty.

SWEDEN AND DENMARK

Copenhagen and Stockholm offer visitors the feeling of being liveable, clean, orderly cities that live in the present, ready for the future and with a regard for their past roots. Copenhagen means “port of merchants” while Stockholm is built on fourteen islands that developed where the waters of the Baltic Sea encounter Lake Mälaren.

There are many fashion and design shops inviting us to buy something.

GERMANY AND POLAND

Berlin is the European capital with the most significant avant-garde artistic references. Every corner and every establishment in the city features signs of this fervour, ranging from music to graphic arts.

It is a city that has shrugged off its past and has a forward-thinking mentality. Warsaw, however, surprises us with its skyline of skyscrapers that tower over the historical buildings.

THE NETHERLANDS AND FRANCE

Amsterdam is a city that you just have to visit, not only for the aspects of freedom that have made it famous, but especially for its wonderful buildings, standing shoulder to shoulder along the canals like soldiers in attention, reflected in the water. And then Paris, which is always worth a visit. If you've never done so, visit it from the Seine and discover another facet of this unforgettable city. If you are already familiar with it however, sit at a café and drink a glass of wine waiting for the evening lights, nothing feels better than this.

GREAT BRITAIN AND SCOTLAND

Enjoying a good cup of tea in London is a must during a trip to the city. Buckingham Palace, Houses of Parliament, Tower Bridge, the centre of London is iconic and one mustn't forget to go to Harrods to buy a small gift. In contrast with the frenetic city of London is the peace of Scotland, where rich greenery surrounds: castles, manors and lakes, including the legendary Loch Ness where we believe Nessie was seen.

Baltic jewels

Sweden, Finland, Russia and Estonia with Costa Mediterranea, 8 days - 7 nights

Good things need to be discovered at a leisurely pace, like on this cruise of the Baltic capitals.

This is why we spend one night in Saint Petersburg and two nights in Stockholm.

In the Swedish capital we visit the renowned Vasa Museum and we shop in the many designer shops while, in Helsinki, we travel through the canals by boat and along them by bike.

Tallinn, with its mixture of the impressive medieval old town (UNESCO World Heritage) and modern buildings, is the symbol of a brand new Europe that looks toward the future, while magical St. Petersburg welcomes us with its splendid buildings on the Neva, the Hermitage Museum and so many things to do and see until late in the evening.

The charm of the fjords

Norway and Germany with Costa Magica, 10 days - 9 nights

We leave from Amsterdam and head to Norway, to Bergen, which we admire from above, after a hike on the “Fjellveien”, a typical mountain road. We can expect to bask in the view of the water of the lakes, the waterfalls and the sea between Hellesylt and Geiranger: Hellesylt waterfalls, Lake Hornidal (the deepest in Europe) and Geirangerfjord, the fiord par excellence.

In Flam, a village in the heart of the fjords with breathtaking landscapes, we travel on the ancient Flåmsbana railway that climbs up steep hairpin bends and thundering waterfalls.

Palma

Pisa

A romantic couple is shown from the back, embracing each other on a balcony. The man is on the left, wearing a dark suit jacket, and the woman is on the right, wearing a dark, sleeveless dress. They are looking out over a vast body of water towards a bright sunset. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a golden glow across the sky and reflecting on the water. The overall mood is peaceful and intimate.
